

WALKING TOUR

SWEET TREATS

There is no better way to see the city of Beverly Hills than a walking tour, especially when it consists of some of the finest chocolate, pastries and ice cream in the world. If you have a major sweet tooth, this tour is for you! Enjoy a sampling of delectable sweets at some of our most renowned establishments.

1 Edelweiss Chocolates

From Maple Creams favored by Frank Sinatra to the French Truffles beloved by Elizabeth Taylor, this charming little chocolate shop has been producing gourmet sweets for chocolate lovers since 1942. Expert chocolatiers at Edelweiss make all creations by hand and utilize recipes and equipment that has been passed down for generations, including the original chocolate conveyor belt machine that inspired Lucille Ball, a frequent patron of the shop, to write the famous “Job Switching” episode in I Love Lucy. To this day, the machine continues to run in the back of the shop, churning out chocolate covered pretzels, truffles, marshmallows, nuts, glazed fruit and assorted sugar-free chocolates.

2 Le Mervetty

Le Mervetty offers one of the city’s most unique sweets, a Parisian meringue cake called, “merveilleux.” Light and fluffy in the middle and covered with whipped cream, these sweets are gracefully handcrafted by staff and are available in various sizes ranging from bite-size to full cakes. Some of the most popular flavors are chocolate, Nutella and praline. Enjoy your treat with an espresso macchiato, as the shop serves hot drinks as well.

3 'Lette Macarons

With treats as beautiful as they are delicious, 'Lette offers a fresh take on the traditional Parisian macaron. The vivid hues of their unique macarons reflect the natural flavors and essences that infuse the ganache filling of these delicious cookies. The macarons come in a wide variety of flavors, each with its own personality and all gluten-free. Choose from the classics, like Earl Grey tea, Passion Fruit and Madagascar Vanilla, as well as from seasonal specialties.

4 Chaumont Bakery & Café

The offerings at Chaumont Bakery & Café are as much a treat to the palette as they are to the eyes with colorful, handcrafted pastries, such as chouquettes, eclairs and a selection of croissants and cakes. Owned by a Parisian husband and wife, Chaumont brings authentic baking standards and premier organic French treats to town. Chaumont’s appreciation for authentic and freshly made pastries hasn’t gone unnoticed, as celebrity chef Ludo Lefebvre considers Chaumont’s croissants “the best croissants in L.A.”

5 Sugarfina

Sugarfina, a luxury candy boutique, was started in a slightly whimsical way when founders, Rosie and Josh, went to see Willy Wonka and the Chocolate Factory on their third date. The candies are curated from all over the world, including Champagne Bears and Peach Bellini bites. Visit the boutique on South Santa Monica Boulevard, where Candy Concierges are happy to offer samples of gourmet candies and to assist with creating personalized products for a wedding, shower or special event.

6 Amorino Gelato

A bit of Paris has landed in Beverly Hills with this international gelato chain. The shop uses the finest ingredients sourced from around the world, such as Bronte pistachios from Sicily and Sorrento lemons from Naples. Pick from traditional gelato flavors and rotating specials as well as gelato-filled macarons, coffee gelato cake, waffles topped with gelato, and Italian focaccia, which is a soft Brioche served hot or cold and filled with your choice of gelato.

7 Sprinkles Cupcakes & Ice Cream

Sprinkles, the famous cupcake bakery, originated here in Beverly Hills. Red Velvet, Lemon Coconut and Chocolate Marshmallow are just a few of the flavors offered. Outside, Sprinkles’ unique Cupcake ATM dispenses its most popular flavors 24 hours a day. Next door, Sprinkles Ice Cream features rich, all-natural ice cream as a cool complement to its gourmet cupcakes. If you can’t decide between a cupcake or ice cream, opt for a Sprinkles Sandwich, which is a scoop of ice cream between two cupcake tops!

8 K Chocolatier by Diane Krön

Known for their chocolate-dipped strawberries and specialty gift boxes, K Chocolatier offers a wide selection of luxury chocolate at their boutique, located one block from Rodeo Drive. Diane Krön’s artisanal chocolate will satisfy any chocolate connoisseur, as her hand-poured chocolate bars, “K Bears,” and “K truffles” are made fresh in small batches daily. Described as the “Rolls Royce of Chocolates” by Food Network, K Chocolatier remains a go-to sweet shop for celebrity customers, such as Ellen DeGeneres, David Beckham and Christie Brinkley.
