

Los Angeles Times

ENTERTAINMENT & ARTS

9 places in L.A. offering Christmas tree lighting events and sparkly lights

Rodeo Drive pictured during the Holiday Lighting Celebration 2022. (Kate Jones / Rodeo Drive Committee)

BY STEVEN VARGAS, LOS ANGELES TIMES STAFF

NOV. 15, 2023 10:56 AM PT

Insights: Holiday lighting events across SoCal

Are you struggling to get in the holiday spirit? Is your apartment too small for a Christmas tree (as I know mine is)? Lucky for you, Los Angeles is filled with community tree-lighting events to help keep your festive spirits alive. Here are a few of the joyous happenings coming up with the biggest trees and the brightest lights:

- The Rodeo Drive Holiday Lighting Celebration fills the beloved street with lights, live entertainment and activities. This year's celebration includes a performance by Emmy Award-winning actor and singer Sheryl Lee Ralph. The kickoff event is from 5 to 8 p.m. Thursday and more details can be found on the Beverly Hills website.