That's Where I Wanna Be

PUT YOUR SUNNIES ON FOR A FULL DAY IN THE 90210

WRITTEN BY: ALLIE LEBOS

Beverly Hills is a famous community known for its stellar shopping, upscale restaurants and high-profile residents. From fast cars to high-end shops, everyone deserves a taste of the unmatched glitz and glam of the 90210. Being that the array of options and activities in Beverly Hills are endless, we've put together a full 24-hour itinerary to ensure that you get the most out of your visit. Our guide to having the best day in Beverly Hills will have you eating good, looking good and feeling good!

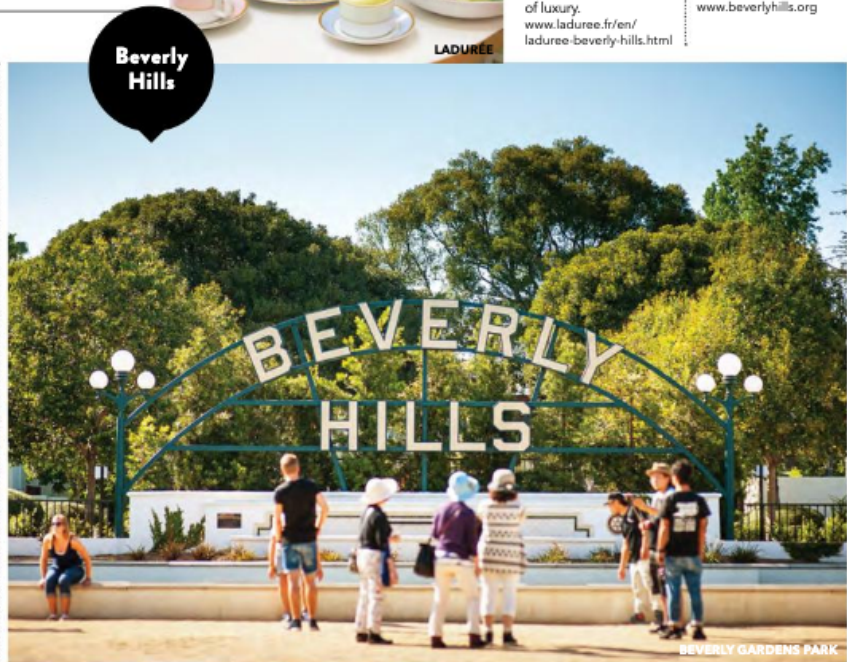

THE Blvd Privé

11:00 a.m.
Stop and Stare
→ Let your artistic side run wild as you tour the newly opened Casa Perfect Art Gallery, located inside a beautiful mansion designed by famed architect Raul F. Garduno. Pro tip: be sure to book your appointment in advance!

12:30 p.m.
Wine and Dine
→ While LA is the ideal spot for al fresco dining, THE Blvd Privé's outdoor pop-up experience is the perfect way to indulge in a diverse lunch. With flavors that span from the east to the west, diners are sure to leave with full bellies and smiles of satisfaction.

2:00 p.m.
Iconic Is an Understatement
→ Ready to shop 'til you drop? Whether you're looking to simply window shop and wish, or you're in the market for a new Henry Jacques perfume, Rodeo Drive will impress any and all visitors.
parfumshenryjacques.com

4:00 p.m.
Tea Time at The Peninsula
→ Settle in for tea, treats and champagne at The Peninsula's "secret garden." This one-of-a-kind experience will make you feel like the queen (or king) you truly are. Pinkies up!

Beverly Hills

BEVERLY GARDENS PARK

THE PENINSULA

5:00 p.m.
Kick Your Feet Up
→ Nothing says "Beverly Hills" quite like an evening at the spa. Relax and rejuvenate after a busy day with an UMA Oil Massage, or indulge in a Power Glow Facial at the legendary Beverly Hills Hotel.

7:00 p.m.
Rooftop Digs
→ Soak in the unbeatable rooftop view at The Beverly Hilton's stunning Santolina restaurant. With a Mediterranean menu and craft cocktails that will make you swoon, there is no better place to wrap up

9:30 a.m.
Breakfast in Paris
→ What better way to start your day than with a cappuccino and croissant from Ladurée in Beverly Hills! Make sure to grab macarons to go, so you're equipped when your sweet tooth kicks in. Experience a true taste of Paris before setting off on a day full of luxury.

10:30 a.m.
A Walk in the Park
→ There's nothing quite like seeing the famed Beverly Hills sign in all its glory at the serene Beverly Gardens Park. Snap some scenic shots of the massive palm tree-lined streets and soak up the sun while (actually) smelling the roses.

9:00 p.m.
Lights Out
→ As you end your evening in the luxurious linens of The Maybourne Beverly Hills, take the time to reflect and reminisce on your perfect day with a nightcap and chocolate caramel fondant cake sent directly to your room. After a day like this, your dreams are sure to be just as sweet as the cake! ■
