Avalon Hotel Beverly Hills

The Avalon Hotel is inspired by timeless mid-century modern design and personal service. It has a relaxed California environment, with views of an hourglass shaped pool and private cabanas. The Avalon Hotel is known for its Hollywood celebrity history, previously serving as Marilyn Monroe's residence. The Avalon Hotel was frequented by the likes of Mae West, Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, all of whom were dog owners.

The hotel offers dogs a plush Casper bed, feeding bowls and doggie treats, providing your pooch the pampering it deserves. The best part is that a portion of the pet fee is donated to the Best Friends Animal Society whose mission is to eradicate homeless pets, allowing you and your dog to stay in style and comfort while feeling good about giving back.

L'Ermitage Beverly Hills

L'Ermitage opened its doors in 1975. Hidden away on one of Beverly Hills' iconic palm-lined, residential boulevards, the hotel is a discreet, luxurious getaway just a few moments away from the city's thriving center. Every traveler that visits L'Ermitage is a special guest, and the hotel's unparalleled service has established the destination as the longest tenured Forbes 5-star all-suite hotel in the world.

Pooch pals are welcomed by name to L'Ermitage, with a luxe dog bed, leash, food and water bowls waiting for them in-suite upon arrival, along with plush toys and delicious treats. If you need to head out, your furry friend can still make the most of the city with a dog walk, arranged by the concierge, or if they'd rather have a snooze in your suite, a 'pet in room' door hanger ensures that they'll remain undisturbed.
